

promoters are responsible for an alleged fake between Buck Crouse and a fellow named Hane. If true, those responsible ought to be railroaded out of business. The boxing game has enough to fight without promoters and boxers pulling off crooked deals.

* * *

Can you beat it? Women in Maine attending boxing matches! That is what happened at Rockland, when Terry Martin and Tom Sawyer boxed ten rounds. The women seemed none the worse for their experience and twelve voted boxing was "just fine."

IN LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

By Norman.

n. y., toosdy—hardly anything aint on the levl, is it lots of times i been to a vodevill show and seen one of them hipnotists do his ackt, making reglar boobs out of a lot of fellers and i that, gee aint that swell, to be able to make pepel bark like a borg, and butt like a billy goat, and all them funny stunts and now i read into the paper where a hipnotist guy had two kings arested for bustin up his show, and they told their side of the storey

it was a case of o, what i know about you, all rite the hipnotist was going througg his show, and these 2 fellers was up on the stajc, along with a bunch of uther subjects one guy is all stiffened out like a poker, and the hipnotist lays him acrost 2 chares, with his neck on one and his kicks on the uther then one of these trubbel makers gives the poor slob a shove, and he lands on the flore, with all the stiffening gone out of him, and mad enuf to fite there aint no fite, but there is such a talkin match that the curten is rung down, and the manidger-of the theayter sends for the wagon and the 2 fellers is pinched then when they come up in court, one of them ses they worked for this here hipnotist 10 yeres alreddy, gettin a cuppel of dollers a day for pretendin to be subjects, and playin they are a fried egg, and all that stuff but the last few days they did not get no dough, and so they that they would bust up the show, and they done it pritty good goak on a feller that calls hisself a hipnotist, aint it bin makin a livin at hipnotizin for 10 yeres and more, and couldnt hipnotize 2 of his reglar subjects into thinkin he had paid them so much in life is just a holler sham johny

Up-to-date churches will guarantee that when you fall asleep a polite janitor will wake you without violence after the service is over.

"Flat-foot glide" is the latest New York dance. Maybe it looks better than it sounds.

Swearing at angel cake strikes us as the height of Irreverance.